9. Swachh Mijar (Ashwathapura to Neerkere) on 28.08.2022

The objective of the cleaning event held between Ashwathapura & Neerkere, in association with Lions Club-Muchur and Samskruthika Kala Vedike - Ashwathapura, was to promote cleanliness and hygiene in the locality, create awareness about the Swachh Bharat (Clean India) campaign, and encourage active participation from the community. The event saw a participation of around 50 volunteers, including members from Lions Club-Muchur, Samskruthika Kala Vedike - Ashwathapura, and enthusiastic local residents. The event commenced at 7:00 AM with a formal inauguration ceremony. After the inauguration, the participants were divided into smaller groups and assigned specific areas for the cleaning drive. The volunteers were provided with gloves and garbage bags to facilitate the cleaning process.

The Swachhata Abhiyan concluded with a closing ceremony at Govt. Primary School - Neerkere acknowledging the volunteers' contribution towards the cleanliness drive on a stretch of about 3 km. Representatives from Lions Club-Muchur and Samskruthika Kala Vedike - Ashwathapura expressed their gratitude to the participants and highlighted the importance of continuing such initiatives for a cleaner and healthier community.

Outcome: The event yielded positive outcomes, creating a cleaner environment and spreading awareness about cleanliness and hygiene practices. The efforts of the volunteers resulted in the collection of a significant amount of waste and the improvement of public spaces within the locality.
