

7.1.10. The institution has prescribed a code of conduct for students, teachers, administrator and other staff and conducts periodic programmes in this regards

AIET has a code of conduct for teaching, non-teaching and administrative staffs, which is outlined in the service rules. The handbook of college rules and regulation for students include student's code of conduct. The Code of Conduct of students and employees of AIET is displayed on the college website. Faculty and students are expected to act professionally and to follow the ethical norms of conduct outlined in the Handbook of Human Values and Professional Ethics.

The institute has a set of principles and rules outlined in the Code of Ethics policy document.

The institute has two committees, Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee for teaching, non-teaching staffs and administrative staffs. Disciplinary Committee for students, which plays a major role in maintaining rules and regulation of the college.

Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee: This committee is responsible in upgrading and creating awareness about the rules and regulation of the Institute. It organizes annual awareness programmes on Code of Conduct and Professional Ethics for Students, teaching, non-teaching and administrative staffs.

Disciplinary Committee: The committee is responsible in maintaining discipline among the students in and around the institute.

As a result of the active functioning of these committees in disciplinary measures are decreased. Students and employees are evolved with a desire to grow professionally and ethically.
