A BRIEF REPORT ON THE INTERNATIONAL CULTURAL JAMBOREE

India has got the first opportunity to host the International Cultural Jamboree of Scouts Guides, the world's largest educational movement with 70 million volunteers across the world. The grand inauguration was held on Wednesday on a sprawling 150-acre plot of Alva's Educational Institute in Moodbidri.

As many as 63,000 scouts, guides, rovers and rangers and their trainers, including a contingent from Malaysia, and volunteers participated in the Jamboree. Apart from activities related to adventure, skill enhancement and personality development, the volunteers were involved in various cultural programmes held at the campuses of Alva's institutions.

INAUGURATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL CULTURAL JAMBOREE.

The first International Cultural Jamboree organised by Bharat Scouts and Guides, National Headquarters New Delhi began on December 21, 2022 at Alva's College, Moodubidire, Karnataka. The International Cultural Jamboree was inaugurated by Governor of Karnataka, Thaawarchand Gehlot. Speaking on the occasion, Thaawarchand Gehlot stated that only bookish education and physical development are not enough, cultural knowledge is also an integral part of overall development. Ahmed Alhendawi, secretary-general of World Organization of the Scout Movement said, "The culture Jamboree in India is not just an event, it is an everyday life, and you live it every day because you feel it every day".

INAUGURAL SPEECH: GOVERNOR OF KARNATAKA, THAAWARCHAND GEHLOT

The Jamboree, a mega event for Scouts & Guides in India and around the world held every four years will continue till December 27, 2022. Delegates from different States of India and overseas like Malaysia, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Bangladesh, Maldives, Philippines, Mexico, South Korea, England, Jordan etc are taking part in the event. Manipur State Contingent under the leadership of Okram Dilipkumar Meitei, State Organizing Commissioner of Scout, 6 Unit Leaders and 15 Scouts and Guides are participating in the ICJ. The Scouts and Guides from Mount Carmel Academy, Senapati Unit, Malem Maheikol, Laphupat Tera, Imphal West, Kongpal Unit, Imphal East and State officials of State Headquarter represented the contingent of Manipur.

Early age is the right time to inculcate discipline and character and discipline, and the Scouts and Guides will help in this regard said Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai. Speaking after inaugurating the International Cultural Jamboree of Bharath Scouts and Guides at Alva's Educational institution in Mudubidare on Sunday, he said the children are taught values, ideals, respect for elders, and love for juniors here. India has history but it requires character. Jamboree is a feast for the eyes and filled with culture, and it will make the country strong culturally across the world. It is happy to note that the institution has resolved to make Prime Minister Narendra Modi's call for nation-building. India has a rich history, culture, and heritage. Indianness means humanity. The achievements of Scouts and guides in the last one hundred years show their important role in preserving culture. Role of Alva's educational institutions praised Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said youths are in confusion due to the onslaught of western culture on Indian culture. What's there in them is civilization and what they Culture Education State are is culture. They must walk on the path of culture, kindness, righteousness, and religion, and inculcate culture through good nature and values. Violence in name of religion is sad Bommai said violence which is going on across the world in the name of religion is unfortunate and sad. Religion is one that preaches peace and respects each other. Unfortunately, terrorism is going on in the name of religion and this is the beginning of the end. India alone has the strength to prevent this and that can happen only through a change of mind. Primary & Secondary Education Minister B. C. Nagesh, Energy Minister Sunil Kumar, MLAs C. T. Ravi, Sripathi Bhat, All India Bharath Scouts & Guides General Secretary Anil Jain. Karnataka Scouts & Guides Chief PGR Sindhia, Alva's Educational Institution's Chairmen Dr. Mohan Alva, and others were present.

AROUND 63000 SCOUTS, GUIDES, ROVERS AND RANGERS & THEIR TRAINERS AND VOLUNTEERS PARTICIPATED IN INTERNATIONAL CULTURAL JAMBOREE

Six days after its inauguration, the massive International Cultural Jamboree of the Scouts and Guides ended on a high note here on Monday, December 26, 2022. For the past week, campers from across the globe congregated at the 150-acre area at Alva's College campus here to partake in the event that was a confluence of adventure, fun, and cultural activities. It was the first time that the Scouts and Guides Jamboree was held at this scale, with more than 60,000 students participating in the activities planned. Though the final curtains for student-participatory programs were drawn on Monday evening, however, the cultural programs will be held till Tuesday night. Kishore, a student from Chikmagalur who participated in the Jamboree, expressed "We came here with many dreams. The organizers have exceeded our expectations. Everything is a new experience." Jamboree had exhibitions, activities, adventures, and more on record proportions. The forest, flower show got at least 25,000 visitors every day. 84 varieties of vegetables, 550 varieties of cereals, 450 agricultural stalls formed the attraction of the agriculture fair. The science fair, which showcased science models from across the state, saw a footfall of 15,000 visitors every day. Alva's campus was bedazzled by the ornamental lights and displays on all 7 days of the event. Elaborate arrangements were made for the stay of the guests and participants. As many as 48,570 students were accommodated in 27 hostels. 380 rooms are arranged locally for artists, and more than 2 thousand volunteers were housed at various hostels of the college. Cleanliness, discipline, and punctuality were the hallmarks of the event. For this wonderful arrangement, appreciation poured in for Dr. Mohan Alva from all quarters for his leadership.

PROCESSION AT INTERNATIONAL CULTURAL JAMBOREE.

Addressing a press conference at Alva's Vidyagiri, Dr. Mohan Alva said that successfully conducting International Jamboree in Moodabidire is a matter of pride. Similarly, building Yuvashakti Kendra as a continuation should be taken up on priority. "Our district has enough resources, there are many institutions. We have no shortage of places either. There is a need for a permanent campus for holding where Scouts and Guides, NCC, and other youth activities. For that, there is a need to build a Youth Shakti Center in Pilikula, Mangaluru where one thousand people can stay on campus," he said.

Outcome:

- The outcome of the International Cultural Jamboree is to encourage youth to live in harmony and with one another. Introducing them to numerous concepts and ideals from various cultures, traditions, and ways of life, helps young people acquire knowledge and abilities.
- The International Cultural Jamboree tries to increase young people's tolerance for social and cultural differences.
