A BRIEF REPORT ON REPUBLIC DAY 2023 CELEBRATION

Alva's Institute of Engineering and Technology in association with Alva's Education Foundation celebrated Republic Day at Puthige Shrimati Vanajakshi K. Shripati bayalu rangamandira on 26th January 2023.

74th Republic Day festivities Republic Day is more than just another occasion for celebration; it marks the beginning of a constitution. On this day, we pay tribute to the valiant men who gave their lives and remember those who are still putting their lives in danger at border crossings in opposition to the festivities. The date 26 January will always hold a special place in our nation's memory because it was the day New India was born.

The chief guest Sri. Vinay Hegde, who is the most accomplished personality, He is the chancellor of Nitte University and the Chairman of Nitte Education Trust. He is a fervent believer that education is the most fundamental requirement for social progress. He ceremonially unfolds the national flag on 74th Republic Day. During his speech Sri Vinay Hegde addressed that the national flag embodies everything that our revolutionaries stood for: justice, liberty, happiness, and an unbreakable tie with our country.

Sri. Vinay Hegde stated that, let us not forget to defend the national flag with all that we have. The national flag's three colors—saffron, white, and green—symbolize the sacrifice of millions who died fighting for it and peace and prosperity now rule our country. They also serve to remind us of our responsibility to our country.

Around 1700 NCC & NSS volunteers of Udupi & Dakshina Kannada who were part of a 74th Republic Day celebration. Sri. P G R Sindia, Dr. M Mohan Alva, Teaching & Non-teaching staffs of AEF were the part 74th Republic Day celebration.
