- 2 Ethics is known as the philosophy of what?
A. Morality B. Society C. Justice D. None of the answers are correct.
- 3 Which of the following is the best way to describe how the term ethics is viewed in the academic world?
A. Ethics is code of conduct for a particular profession and not related to personal life.
B. Ethics is a branch of philosophy dealing with morality.
C. Ethics is a field of study that focuses on faith and religion.
D. Ethics is what we do when we know others are watching.
- 4 Which of the following is an example of a value?
A. Justice B. Happiness C. Security D. All of the answers are correct.
- 5 Which of the following can be considered opportunistic residual loss behaviour by an agent? Select which two options are correct.
A purchase of an expensive painting for the managing director's office
B investing in technology that will substantially reduce short-term profit, but yield returns in the longer term C suspending negotiations with a potential acquisition target because it would not enhance shareholder wealth D delaying maintenance expenditure in order to meet current profit targets as this will result in profit-related bonuses for a manager
- 6 Stakeholder theory is best described as being based on the presumption that the corporation has direct concerns about its relationships with
A the corporate regulator. B the directors of the corporation.
C the shareholders of the corporation. D a wide range of groups that affect and/or are affected by the corporation.

- 7 Which one of the following would be the best way for a shareholder (not being an institutional shareholder) to become involved in the corporate governance of a listed corporation in which they own shares?
- A by taking an active interest and an active role in the management of the corporation
B by voting through proxy or by attendance at the general meetings of the corporation
C by selling their shares on the market because the corporation fails to pay dividends at an appropriate level
D by overruling board decisions, including through votes against the board in relation to non-binding shareholder votes
- 8 Which one of the following statements best describes an independent director of a listed corporation?
- A a non-executive director who holds 20 per cent of the shares in the corporation
B an executive director who is a CEO but who receives no additional remuneration for being on the board
C a non-executive director who receives a flat fee for being a director and who accepts no additional consulting, advisory or performance-related fees
D a full-time employee of a bank who is appointed to the board at the request of the bank (a major lender to the corporation) and is instructed by the bank to always vote in the interests of the corporation's shareholders
- 9 Mr Smith is a director of a corporation. He is aware that the corporation is about to announce the appointment of a high-profile industry leader to chair its board. Mr Smith suspects that this may affect the price of shares in the corporation. He mentions the imminent appointment to his friend, Mr Jones, who immediately purchases shares in the corporation, which increase in value once the announcement of the chair is made. Which one of the following options most accurately reflects the legal position of Mr Smith and Mr Jones?
- A Mr Smith is potentially liable for insider trading, but Mr Jones is not.
B Mr Jones is potentially liable for insider trading, but Mr Smith is not.
C Both Mr Smith and Mr Jones are potentially liable for insider trading.
D Neither Mr Smith nor Mr Jones is potentially liable for insider trading.
- 10 Which one of the following is least likely to be relevant in determining whether an agreement between a corporation and consumer is unconscionable?
- A whether undue influence was applied to the consumer
B whether the consumer was able to understand the documents used
C the difference in the strength of the bargaining power of the parties
D the extent to which the corporation drove a 'hard and tough' bargain
- 11 Listed corporations are required to meet continuous disclosure requirements. This requirement is designed to ensure a fully informed market and, as such, also assists in reducing the risks of insider trading. Which one of the following situations is most likely to result in the greatest risk of insider trading?
- A An entity held information that would have a material effect on the price of its securities and immediately disclosed it to the stock exchange.
B An entity held information that a reasonable person would not expect to have a material effect on the price of its securities and so immediately notified the stock exchange.
C An entity is in confidential discussions regarding a proposed takeover that would have a material effect on the price of its securities, but decides not to notify the stock exchange until the negotiations are complete.
D An entity has been ordered by a court to pay a significant fine, which, if paid, would have a material effect on the price of its securities. However, as the entity is going to appeal the decision, it decides not to notify the stock exchange

- 12 Which one of the following statements is not correct in relation to legal compliance programs?
- A Compliance programs can help promote ethical behaviour and a quality focus within the corporation, leading to a lower likelihood of breaching legislation.
- B A breach of legislation will probably lead to lower employee morale and higher employee turnover, thereby increasing the knowledge gap within the corporation.
- C Having a compliance program posted on the corporation's intranet site is sufficient to protect the corporation and its directors from breaches of legislation by employees.
- D A breach of legislation will likely lead to an investigation by the regulatory bodies, and such activities will divert resources away from the entity's profit-making objective.
- 13 If a supplier induces or insists on the minimum price at which a reseller should sell or advertise the supplier's products, this is referred to as
- A price-fixing. B exclusive dealing. C unconscionable conduct. D resale price maintenance.

A BRIEF REPORT of
Certificate Course on Ethics, Values and Society
2014-15 EVEN Semester

The department of Physics conducted a certificate course on “Ethics, Values and Society” as a mandatory certificate course for first year EVEN Semester physics cycle students. This course was conducted every Saturday during 22-01-2015 to 23-05-2015 at AIET Moodbidri. The course contains 35 hours. The course was handled by the faculty of Physics department namely Dr.Santhosha Acharya, Dr. Ramaprasad. A.T, Mr. Rajesh Kumar .P, Mr. Viju Francis and Ms. Ashwini A.R

The Certificate in Ethics, Values, and Society is an academic program for undergraduates to explore questions about ethics, politics, and social justice across topics and subject areas. Students who obtain this Certificate gain the knowledge and skills necessary to ask practical and applied questions about ethical, legal, social, and political issues, enabling them to dive deeper into their areas of interest and majors. Students also learn about the theoretical foundations of these kinds of inquiries and how to seek out different perspectives and responses.

An objective test was conducted twice during the duration of the course and based on cutoff % of marks and attendance ‘Course certificate’ was issued to the students. All the students were eligible to obtain certificates and the department of physics issued certificates to the students. 243 students have successfully completed the course.
