EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The internship project done at Sri Padma Cashew industry has been an opportunity to know how the firm operates the management of working capital. The study has been conducted in the finance department of the firm.

The firm 'SHREE PADMA CASHEW INDUSTRY' was started in the year 2007 at Padyarabettu and it is one of the leading cashew industry in its region. The firm was established by Sulochana Jain in Padyarabettu

This study contains an analysis of the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities of the company and threats that are possessed by the competitors towards the company. The study was conducted including all the departments of the company and learnt about the business dealt by them. I also learnt about the different competitors, different financial aspects related to the working capital management in the organization.

The internship provided a real-world experience into the industry. It has been an excellent and rewarding experience. It helped to build the skills and knowledge necessary in the professional setting. It gave a better understanding of professional cultures and develops professional work habits. It also helped me gain an insight in entrepreneurship in the field of cashew industry.

This internship provided me the opportunity to learn more about the cashew industry and more about the operations of the organization. The study also gave an opportunity to gain a deeper insight about the financial aspect of the organization
