

REPORT ON SELF EMPLOYMENT AWARENESS PROGRAMME

About Guests and Speakers:

The guest speakers were Mr. G.K. Prasad, President, Pranav Sowharda Sahakri Sangha, Mr. Socrates, Deputy Director, MSME, Mangalore, Mr. Somappa Nayak, Director, Pranav Sowharda Sahakri Sangha, Mr. Raghav, Lead District Chief Manager, Syndicate Bank, Mangalore, Mr Ramakrishna Achar, Chairman & Managing Director, SKF group, Mr. Satish Chandra K.S, President of Campco Ltd. & Director of Sowharda Federation Mangalore & Mr. Dayasagar Punja, Director, Pranav Sowharda Sahakri Sangha.

Programme Proceedings:

The talk started at 10:00 am on 17/10/2016 with the address of Mr. G.K. Prasad, he specified about the importance of self-employment & how India is struggling with lack of jobs in the agriculture sector, he spoke about the advantages of becoming an entrepreneur & how the Government will help the upcoming start-ups in India.

Mr. G.K. Prasad addressing students on importance of self-employment

Mr G.K. Prasad's talk was followed by the talk of Mr. Socrates, he being the Deputy Director of MSME, Mangalore specified on how MSME helps to fund start-ups & registrations of MSME, one of the aims of MSME was to build Business Incubators so the start-ups can flourish from colleges.

Mr. Socrate explaining about services rendered by MSME

One talk which was noteworthy was that of Mr. Ramakrishna Achar who spoke about his life story & how he built his company from scratch to new heights, he motivated the students present at the talk & raised the atmosphere to a whole new level. The event was concluded by giving away momentous to all the guests by Prof. Sanjay S, EDC Co- ordinator, AIET.

Mr. Ramakrishna Achar motivating students towards self-employment

From the session students got information regarding MSME registration, the services & help rendered to start-ups and were motivated to take up self-employment.