Hi Chinmay:
Do you want to do it offline or online?

Regards
SATish

Please note the change in my primary official email address

As a part of my "Communication Deaddiction Program" I will minimize the usage of all communication modes from MONDAY to FRIDAY from 9.30 A.M. to 2.00 P.M. This means that I will (try) not access emails, messages, and any other modes of communication. This excludes the prior scheduled online meetings. I never thought that we would get so much dependent on online meetings (19 April 2020).

On these days, you might not get a reply from me immediately.

If URGENT please call me on my mobile.
I might cut your call if it is an unknown number.
Please call again. Try to call on my mobile (9845080657) on these days. This landline, which is my office number, is presently useless as I am working from home.

Doing all this as an exercise, a number of interruptions has killed my power to concentrate.
