Presidents' Note

Dr. Mohan Alva

The word 'Virasat' gives the meaning 'traditional value'. This unique musical, artistic and cultural event has evolved from a cultural programme called 'Spicmacay' which was conducted in Moodbidri for spreading the essence of Indian art forms among students. This platform was founded even before the beginning of the academic activities of Alva's Institutions in Moodbidri. This ambitious attempt to introduce the cultural and artistic glory of India to the civilians of Moodbidri took the form of 'Alva's Virasat' in the course of time and attained independent identity. Alva's Virasat' is now conducted in the Alva's College Campus every year. Alva's Virasat is a cultural extravaganza of classical music and dance programmes organised for the students and the general public. This is a very scrupulously choreographed event in which there will be formal inaugural programme on the first day. There will be a welcome speech and vote of thanks during the following days of the event and no scope for any unnecessary speech. The programme will begin with the lighting of the lamp by the dignitaries everyday. It will have two slots of time dedicated to classical/folk music and classical/folk dance respectively. This cultural fest lasts for a week attracting around 50,000 like-minded audience every day.

Alva's Virasat attracts art and music lovers from India and abroad. The talented teams of the artistes of national and international recognition give their best performance in Alva's Virasat.

This programme of 4 hours duration starts at 6 p.m. and ends at 10 p.m. everyday. The ambience backed by the natural serenity of the surrounding greenery, lit with the colourful electric lights at night would make the audience enthralled and engrossed in the musical and artistic programmes performed on a grandly decorated large stage of 150 feet length and 70 feet width. Alva's Virasat has proved to be a grand event in the life of artistes to showcase their talents. One artist of international fame is felicitated with the 'Alva's Virasat Award' of Rs. 1,00,000 every year during this event. Already the leading artistes of India namely Padmabhushan Sonal Mansingh, Padmashree Zakir Hussain, Pandit Hariprasad Chaurasia, Padmashree Kadri Gopalnath, Padmavibhushan Balamuralikrishna, Padmabhushan K.J.Yesudas, Padmashree Ajorya Chakravarthi, Padmabhushan Dr. Padma Subrahmanyam, Padmashree and Padmabhushan Dr. Teejan Bai, Padmavibhushan Ustad Amjad Ali Khan and Padmashree Dr. S.P Balasubramaniam have received this prestigious Alva's Virasat Award.

Alva's Virasat is organised with the motto of fostering the musical, artistic and cultural interests among the students. Besides, it is an immense opportunity to the civilians of Moodbidri to witness and enjoy the rare moments of the performances by the world-famous musicians and artists. This year, 25th Alva's Virasat is going to be held with all its grandeur.

'Alva's Varna Virasat', a mega exhibition of artistic and sculptural talents is held during Alva's Virasat every year. The professional artistes of national and international fame, participate in this mega event and showcase their artistic skills. According to the legend, the first person to see the city was a man named "Lucky" Lopez, who was a gold prospector. He had been lost in the mountains for days, and as he lay exhausted, he saw a city built of gold and silver. He was so overcome by the beauty of the city that he never left it. The city was built on a hill, and the people who lived there were very kind and generous. They gave Lopez food and shelter, and he stayed with them for many years. When he finally left, he took with him a small amount of gold and silver, which he used to start his own business. He became very successful, and eventually became one of the most famous men in the country.

A black and white portrait of a man with dark hair and a mustache, wearing a suit and tie. The photo is framed by a decorative border.

The image shows a vertical column of Odia text. The first few lines are preceded by a decorative illustration of a person in traditional Odia clothing, possibly a sage or a deity, holding a long staff or a ceremonial object. The person is depicted with a shaved head and a beard, wearing a dhoti and a shawl. The background of the text area features a repeating pattern of small floral motifs.

'Sculpture art needs total dedication'

Tuesday, 12th February
Tulsi D'Souza

Mangalore: Poetry, writing and art's inherent link between mind and form intersect and opportunity to display the same is important. If one becomes interested through continuous hard work, then these opportunities will come. In search of this talent, senior sculptor Suresh Vethabharanam said, inaugurating Alva's Shilpa Virasat here on Saturday.

continuing effort is part of the presentation as part of expertise over the art form. A sculptor must have firm determination in his/her ability to move towards making out a work, but only such excellence will see a fine piece of sculptures art form emerge from the material that the sculptor uses. In turn and Piscatorius, both Alva's Shilpa Virasat help emerging and established sculptors share common platform, discuss ideas and suggestions about their trade and such interaction will only help enrich the field of sculpture, he added.

Venk Alva, managing trustee of Alva's Education Foundation, who chaired the inaugural function, said art is a creative outlet for expression.

6 After a series of open-air meetings in various parts of the country, the Protestant Church of India and Ceylon presented a memorial to the Government on the 2nd of January, 1870, asking that the name of the State might be changed from "Mysore" to "Mysore Principality". The Government replied that they were willing to consider the matter, but that they were not prepared to accept the suggestion. The Government stated that the name of the State was derived from the name of the river "Mysore", which flows through the State, and that it was not desirable to change the name of the State without due consideration of the feelings of the people.

Colonial Cousins leave audience spellbound

Alva's Virasat begins in Moodbidri

BY SHOBHA SHETTY
The Hindu

True to their statement before the concert, Haritharan and Leslie Lewis left the large audience spellbound with their songs from their popular album 'Colonial Cousins' on the inaugural day of the three-day Alva's Virasat at Alva's College grounds in Moodbidri on Friday. "What will happen today will not be happening elsewhere," Mr. Lewis said before starting their one-hour concert at 7.30 pm.

Very few audience members lifted their hands when the two singers wanted to know how many had heard of their album released in 1990. Then they regaled the audience with hits from their album Colonial Cousins and other songs.

Mr. Haritharan also presented the ghazal 'Kash Aisa Ra Manzoor Hota' from his album Kashish.

The two received the best for the popular song 'Krishna from Colonial Cousins' album that was presented differently. The beats by the tabla player in the midst of this presentation was well appreciated by audience. The two ended the concert with the song 'Aai Dhola'.

Earlier, Mr. Haritharan was presented with the Alva's Virasat award which carried a purse of ₹ 10,000. Stating that he was honoured to receive the award, Mr. Haritharan asked youth to listen to good music, which, he said, acts as a healer and helps in keeping the heart and the mind peaceful.

A. Umashankar Rao, Moodbidri MLA, Chairman of Nine Group of Institutions N. Vinay Hegde and Chairman of Alva's Education Foundation M. Mohan Alva participated in the programme.

On the opening day of Alva's Virasat, there was a concert by Haritharan and Leslie Lewis, and a procession was also taken out in Moodbidri on Friday.

discrepancy between the results of what may have been different types of studies, and the lack of agreement among studies, there are significant changes throughout the field, except for the study of 2011 by Juras et al.,

conclusion can be drawn from the available data, there seems to be a slight overall reduction in the trend.
However, it must be noted that

Die ersten drei Absätze des Gedichts sind eine Art Einführung, die den Inhalt des Gedichts ankündigt. Es geht um die Freude am Leben und die Freude am Schönen. Die Freude am Leben ist die Freude an der Existenz selbst, an der Tatsache, dass man lebt. Die Freude am Schönen ist die Freude an der Schönheit der Dinge, an der Schönheit der Natur, an der Schönheit der Menschen. Das Gedicht ist ein Lied der Freude, ein Lied der Hoffnung, ein Lied der Liebe.

The competition was fierce, but I

I am now a successful designer.

Curtains On Alva's Virasat

7 Years & That's It!

Though it was Brentford's curtains come down on the 25th edition of Alva's Virasat, in the three-day national cultural festival organised by the Renaissance Foundation of Writers & Poets, the well-known K Shashikumar section of Virasatanaagam Durbar was Shashikumar's own with his modern interpretation of 2011, and his second consecutive year at this year.

The last few times we have come together, there is no more inhabited soul.

Introducing his son, the yet-to-be-flame-flower-and-the-mooned-second-born-labour, he was more than happy to see the children take centre-stage in his medley 'Man

Yatra' (2 States) and 'Nehru' (Chandhi Chanki to Chintu) with the second-generation curtain-crooning over the junior soon after him. Teja Samhita from Rummy Sharang 'Bhoomani' to get the curtain hauled on its last.

Wanted to have some fun with the crowd, the performers in several gags with the help of interlocutors 'By Jove' from V Chethu (final) bombarding each other to avoid not getting them Virasat in his hands and seeking to bless him. Some of the audience turned up in costume - for the most part in self-chosen member

LIGHT-FILLED TRIBUTE: The audience sit on their metal chairs and sing 'I never shall find her for the song 'Naan Na' from the film 'Naan Na' from his '7' song by Shashikumar Shivan on Sunday

A few minutes into the show, a guest on stage the elder of the Maharashtra siblings - Shashikumar - who has carved a niche for himself as an independent singer in Hollywood. And, he chose the songs 'Zoids' and 'Raag Milhaa Ilhaaq' from Peshawar Arthur starring Shaukat Ali. In Ilhaaq' to leave the audience in little doubt that the Maharashtra legacy is well and ticklish.

Shashikumar himself watched Shashikumar in one of his songs the high pitched song perfect to a T.

Earlier, Shashikumar, the foundation for having him at Virasat for the second year in succession, Shashikumar opened the night with a song from 'Lakshya' based on the 1989 Kargil war, dedicating it to Dr M. M. Kalburgi, chairman of the foundation, for doing his bit for the spread of culture. It was then his favourite 'Dil Chahta Hain' from the namesake film, and Poetry Recitation from 'Naan Na' from 'Naan Na' which aptly dedicated to all the winners of this year Kochi of 'The metalliums' condition of 'Zoids' from 'Naan Na' is Shashikumar by the newest member of his troupe, Poornesha Chidambaram, as the mood for another high octane number. It is the time to 'Dives' from 'Naan Na' Ho.' Keeping in mind the predominantly student population among the audience, Shashikumar dedicated 'Haar Gharchi' backed with 'Naan Na' from Shashikumar's earlier 'Naan Na' Ho' to them. This song brought out the middle finger amongst the crowd.

Involving every section of the crowd with his word play amidst the screams, Shashikumar went in to the unexpected section towards the end of the show. This pleasant surprise of 'Naan Na' from 'Naan Na' and Shashikumar introducing his entire crew, giving them the opportunity to mark his words with their respective instruments. Raman played able odds to the newly married Radhika on words, breathless was the time he said after da in Virasat.

At Home

Domestic chores are often considered menial tasks. However, it is important to remember that domestic work is equally important as professional work. It requires a lot of effort and skill to maintain a home. In today's fast-paced world, many people are juggling multiple responsibilities, which makes it even more challenging to manage domestic work. Despite this, it is essential to prioritize domestic work and recognize its value.

Moodbidri: Singer Sukhwinder Singh had the entire amphitheatre at Smt. Virasatash K Shripati Bharathi Hall at Virasat Grounds Nager in Puttur dancing to his tunes.

An action-packed show on Day 2 of Alva's Virasat, a three-day national cultural festival underway at this Jain Kashi of the South. It was clear that Sukhwinder was here to Kar Hui Mandaur Fatah and he did so with aplomb accompanied by his 11-member crew at Gora Thoranga. With Radhey Khadilkar playing able second vocal support, it was only time that Sukhwinder started unleashing his wide repertoire of songs at the cultural fest, now into its 25th edition and where he was making his maiden appearance. Sukhwinder started the proceedings with the high-voltage number Kar Hui Mandaur Fatah from the latest movie Karju.

It was then time for Hain Hale Se Trone Rab Ne Bana Di Jodi. Using the flanks of the sprawling cultural stage at the vedike to the fullest, Sukhwinder lost no time in establishing a personal rapport with the audience as he seamlessly moved into another high-octane number Aaja Dil Nihoda Pyar Ki from Kaminey. And just as the crowd was warming up to the action, Sukhwinder was there with the number that made him a force in action with.

Explaining the essence of what Chal Chalyya from Dil Be was all about, Sukhwinder said when he teamed up with Oscar-winner A.R. Rahman, he had the task of explaining to the master what this essentially Punjabi poetry meant.

Noting that Virasat started out as a platform to promote classical music, Sukhwinder said, "It is important to remember our tradition. Classical music is the parent that fosters its artisans who thrive in filmy songs, Sufi and Lodi pop. Past is always an experience to perform in the present," he said. His songs ticked all the right boxes with the audience in excess of 60,000 as they listened to the singer in rapt attention.
