ROSTRUM- THE SPEAKERS' CLUB

GUEST LECTURE BY MR. DAYA NAYAK

06/09/2016

AIET Auditorium, Mijar

'Moral policing will not make the system proper, instead citizens supporting police in maintaining and following law will definitely make a difference said', Encounter Specialist PSI Daya Nayak.

He was speaking on 'Crime, Youth and Society' after inaugurating 'Rostrum', Speakers' club organised by Alva's Institute of Engineering and Technology, on Tuesday, at AIET Auditorium, Mijar.

The police department is responsible for maintaining law and order in the society and citizens are equally responsible to cooperate with the department and follow the law, he noted. He added and said it is globally accepted that the Scotland cops are the most effective police force in the world. But the fact is Indian police work harder and functions more effectively than the Scotland police. What makes the difference is the cooperation that departments receive from the people is not seen in India, while Indians lack the courtesy to abide by the law. He called upon the students to excel in one field and told to contribute valuable service to his country in one or another way. Answering query about his suspension, he told, 'If I am getting punishment for doing good works, I will not get back from doing that, If I found guilty law will punish me'. Even after more than 70 years of Independence, the Police Act is still not amended. We still follow the outdated Police Act, he lamented. Success is guaranteed virtue, but it takes a lot of excellence and calibre to achieve it. As long as your conscious is clear, no one can stop you from achieving any heights. He told it is necessary to make the students aware of law conducting law courses in the college.

Alva's Education Managing Trustee Vivek Alva, AIET Principal Dr Peter Fernandes, Rostrum President Raksha Satish, Secretary Murali Krishna Acharya were present among others.

more effectively than Scotland Yard Police. What makes difference between Indian police and their Scotland Yard counterparts is the cooperation the famed UK police receive from people, which is absent in India. Moreover, Indians also lack the courtesy to abide by the law, rued Daya Nayak, police sub-inspector, Mumbai Police, better known as 'Encounter Specialist' for his exploits in eliminating the underworld.

Inaugurating Rostrum – Speakers' Club at Alva's Institute of Engineering and Technology at Mijar near here on Tuesday, Daya Nayak dwelling on 'Crime, Youth and Society' said police is responsible for maintaining law and order and citizens are equally responsible to co-operate with the department and follow the law.
