Report of the Event

'Sajibu Cheiraoba', a traditional festival of Manipur, was celebrated on 24-11-2018 with religious zeal by Manipuri students of Alva's Education Foundation. Being a special invitee to the celebration, Manipur Education minister and retired IPS officer Thokchom Radheshyam said, "Manipur is an isolated land from the mainland yet it bears a rich heritage and culture. The education system there didn't evolve so much.

He called upon Manipuri's to return to their native land and bring a new ray of hope in the system. Presiding over the program, Alva's Education foundation trustee Vivek Alva said that Alva's Education Foundation has been striving towards integration between Northeast and Karnataka in the real sense. "We started with a couple of students and today. The Sajibu Cheiraoba festival is a celebration of New Year in Manipur.

This is a sacred festival of Manipur when all the people welcome New Year grandly. The formal function was followed by cultural shows like 'Dhol Cholom,' stick dance and group songs. Manipuri students also performed 'Dollu Kunitha' on the occasion. A Manipuri meal comprising utthi, chicken curry, champhut, kanghou, fish curry, eromba, and singju was prepared by students. After meals, the students offered prayers at a nearby hill. RSS Manipur Prantya Koshadhyaksh Gorakchandra Sharma and Poorvanchal Vikas Parishad coordinator Puspharaj were present.
